

Apprenticeship Levy Support Unit

Dedicated support to help you use your levy effectively

With an estimated £1.3bn of unspent apprenticeship levy funds in the UK*, it's anticipated that employers are losing out on unspent funds and in need of additional support navigating the changing apprenticeship landscape.

Total People's Apprenticeship Levy Support Unit can help

We have a dedicated team of professional business development executives, experienced in delivering apprenticeship solutions to large levy paying employers.

Delivering apprenticeship training since 2001, we are ideally placed to support your organisation through recent regulatory changes and offer impartial solutions in how best to use your apprenticeship levy.

We can support you by:

- Helping you to fully understand the changes that have implications for spending your apprenticeship levy
- Providing guidance on apprenticeship levy planning
- Helping you to embed apprenticeship standards into your organisation across a wide range of occupational areas
- Advising you on the best possible training for your employees.

Tailored solutions

Our vision is to provide a complete training and recruitment package, adapting our training to meet your specific needs. We can work in partnership with you to develop your workforce and provide the skills your employees need to evolve in a globally competitive market.
